WELCOME TO FRIESLAND

Just an hour's drive from Amsterdam, three hours from Antwerp and Bremen, the enchanting world of Friesland awaits you. Four national parks, two UNESCO World Heritage sites, eleven historic cities, islands in the Wadden Sea and Frisian lakes; it's almost too much to count. An endless horizon, clean air and everywhere the water sparkles in front of you. Take a deep breath and enjoy. In the capital, Leeuwarden, the historic city center goes hand in hand with modern architecture. The more than eight hundred monuments affirm the history of this royal city.

Leeuwarden/Friesland was the European Capital of Culture in 2018. Arcadia is the first Triennale to tie in with this. For one hundred days in the summer, Arcadia offers an open-air stage for national and international artists. With a walking forest in the streets of Leeuwarden. With an international exhibition of visual art in the green of Oranjewoud. Or with the most legendary Elfstedentocht since climate change, which moves through villages and towns in one big festival.

BOSK (Arcadia)	A walking forest, right through the streets of Leeuwarden. Neighborhoods, squares and canals become a green stage, with the trees as wings. No day in the same place, because no day is the same within the program. In this way, the meter-high trees form the backdrop for 100 days of stories, encounters and performances, made with and for residents. After their expedition, the trees will take root in a new, permanent location in the Frisian capital in order to become greener and more sustainable. BOSK is a visionary concept by artist Bruno Doedens (SLeM) and the late Joop Mulder (Oerol, Sense of Place).	n/a	Public event	n/a	n/a	May 6- Aug 14	More info via Yvonne@merkfryslan.nl or enno@merkfryslan.nl
