INFORMATION FOR RESIDENTS

Residents will have a front-row seat during the visit of the royal family. At the same time, they should be prepared for measures in place to make King's Day in Maastricht a celebration for all. For example, part of the city centre will be closed to motorised traffic from Tuesday 26 April 11.00 am to Wednesday 27 April 7.00 pm. Car parks, parking garages and parking spaces in the in the cordoned off area will be closed: vehicles may not enter or exit. As a resident you may have questions about King's Day in Maastricht. You can find our Frequently Asked Questions below.

I live on the royal route. Will I be able to reach my front door during King's Day?

Yes, your front door will remain accessible on foot.

I use a mobility scooter. Will I be able to ride my mobility scooter past the cordons?

We try to keep locations in the city centre accessible where possible, but please note that access may be limited due to crowds and narrow streets.

Will I be able to receive visitors at my house?

That's no problem. Feel free to enjoy King's Day together with your visitors.

I want to make my home available to journalists or spectators. Is that allowed?

Yes, that's allowed. Please note that you will be responsible for your own and your guests' safety. Don't let too many people stand in front of a window or on a balcony to watch the festivities.

I need home care. Will King's Day in Maastricht cause any problems?

(Home) care institutions will be informed by the GGD. (Home) care can continue as usual.

Will my home remain accessible for emergency services?

Yes, emergency services are closely involved in the organisation of King's Day. Your home will always remain accessible when needed.

What about waste collection?

Sorting stations in the city centre will stay open until Tuesday evening 26 April 7.00 pm. We will then close the sorting stations until Thursday morning, 28 April 7.00 am.

I always park my car in the parking garage of my building. Can it stay there?

Car parks, parking garages and parking spaces will be closed from Tuesday 26 April 11.00 am to Wednesday 27 April 7.00 pm. Cars can remain parked but may not enter or exit.
